If you're looking for the liveliest town in Kentucky, stick a pin at Ashland.

PROPOSED BIG BUILDING.

The Voters Will Be Asked to Approve a Modern Schoolhouse.

At the last meeting of the Board of Education a committee was appointed to see if an important matter can be gotten before the voters.
It is a proposition to abolish all the present Public School Buildings in the city except that in the Fifth Ward, and to substitute for them one large modern structure capable of accommodating all the pupils in the city West of Limestone creek.

THE CHECK WAS BAD.

G. W. Stamper's Name Forged to a Promise to Pay.

On Friday last a man representing himself as J. D. Arthur swooped down on Maysville with a check on the Deposit Bank at Vanceburg, calling for $365 good dollars and purporting to be signed by G. W. Stamper, a prosperous merchant of that city.
He first bought a wagon and things from Colonel John I. Winter, offering the check in payment; but as Mr. Winter was from Missouri, he didn't shell out the difference in cash.
Then he bought a gold watch from the Messrs. McCarthy, shoving out the promise to pay, and hoping to get $300 and then some in change; but Mr. McCarthy was also from Missouri.
A third trial was made at Klipp & Brown's, where he wanted a set of harness and some $350 in change. Missouri again.
At one or more of these places he offered a couple of good citizens in identification; but unfortunately they were out of town.
The next trial was made at the State National Bank, where the Cashier required some one to vouch for him.
It didn't take him more than a pair of minutes to hustle Mr. Ed Nash, the Epworth merchant, into the Bank, who promptly informed the Cashier that the checkholder was Mr. Arthur.
Then Mr. Arthur indorsed the check with the name of J. D. Arthur and proceeded to say that he didn't need all the money it called for; $200 would satisfy his present wants, and he would leave the balance on deposit, asking for a few blank checks which he could use in drawing against it.
All this was a very plausible proceeding, and so natural that it would disarm the slightest suspicion.
But a little later in the course of the Bank's business along came another check with G. W. Stamper's name hanging to the Southeast corner, and a comparison of the signatures showed a healthy difference.
Then the wires got hot from rapid-fire messages to and from Vanceburg, resulting in Mr. Stamper's disavowal of having signed any such check.
The real J. D. Arthur was later brought down from his home at Concord; and he proved to be not the man who figured in the transaction.
The Mr. Arthur who got the money is thought to have gone to Cincinnati on a belated train which passed West shortly after he turned the trick, and the officers are after him.
It may develop that others than the pretended J. D. Arthur had a finger in the forgery of Mr. Stamper's name.

Mr. Egbert McMillan, who has been with the Western and Southern Insurance Company, leaves today for Vanceburg to take charge of the business there.

TO THE VOTERS OF MAYSVILLE.

I am a candidate for Police Judge before the people, and shall have them decide by their votes November 5th whether or not they wish me to be Judge of the Police Court of Maysville. Respectfully,
HARRY C. CURRAN.

KICKERS' CORNER

If any one at any time for any reason has any cause to "kick" in any way at anything of any kind, here's the place to say his say. The door is open—walk right in and help yourself, free gratis and for nothing;—but don't make your "kicks" too long—it's the short, quick fellows that count—and cut.
The name of the kicker must accompany the kick, or it'll be kicked into the waste-basket.

MOVING THE MIDWAY.

Editor Ledger: Can't the Managers of the Elks Fair be induced to transfer the Midway shows from Market street to the Fairgrounds?
CITIZEN.

As the Managers of the Elks Fair wish to benefit and to please the greatest number, THE LEDGER presumes, if it be the general desire, that the Midway not only can be, but that it will be, moved to the Fairgrounds.

When the Soliciting Committee appealed to the business men for aid,—which, by the way, was given with great cheerfulness and cordiality,—it was met with the declaration from not a few that, however large the crowd at the Fairgrounds, the benefit to the city was a mere trifle, not at all commensurate with the outlay.
It was pointed out that the way to secure a "crowd in town" was to have at least a part of the big show on the streets, and with this end in view Market street was chosen for its location.

Now, however, very many of the occupants along that thoroughfare are "kicking" lest the crowd be too great.

Rest assured, dear Citizen, that the Elks will draw the biggest crowd ever seen in Maysville; that they will do everything possible to entertain and to please that crowd; that, if the public desires it, the Midway will go to the Fairgrounds; and, if any of the subscribers to the promotion fund wish a return of their subscriptions on that account, that that will be done also.

The Elks are here to please; and if there is anything that is wanted which cannot be seen just ask for it.—ED. LEDGER.
